

SHARED WORLDS

A MINDING ANIMALS PRE-CONFERENCE EVENT

OSLO 14-15 October 2011

Venue: Domus Nova (St. Olavs plass 5)

SPEAKERS:

ROD BENNISON (HUNTER VALLEY, AUSTRALIA): "CONSIDERING THE EXPLOITATION OF ANIMALS IN SPORT, AND UNDERSTANDING THE 'SPORT OF QUEENS'"

TORA HOLMBERG (UPPSALA, SWEDEN): "SHARING THE LIVES OF MANY: URBAN CONTROVERSIES OVER ANIMAL HOARDING AND ANIMAL RESCUE"

LIV EMMA THORSEN (OSLO, NORWAY): "SHARED WORLDS? ANIMALS IN NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUMS"

NELLY MÄEKIVI (TARTU, ESTONIA): "(MIS)PERCEPTIONS IN SHARED ENVIRONMENTS: THE CASE OF ZOOS"

There will further be roundtables on (1) the shared worlds of humans and horses and (2) the shared worlds of humans and wolves, and a workshop on the relation between academia and activism.

Organised by Minding Animals International in association with the Nordic Animal Studies Network, Nordic HAS. Affiliated institutions: Equine Research Network (EqRN) and Department of Semiotics at the University of Tartu by ESF grant 7790 "Dynamical Zoosemiotics and Animal Representations". Hosted by: The University of Oslo, Department of Criminology and Sociology of Law. Funded by: Department of Semiotics at the University of Tartu by ESF grant 7790 "Dynamical Zoosemiotics and Animal Representations". Event website: <http://mindinganimals.wordpress.com> To register, write an email to shared.worlds.oslo@gmail.com with your full name, email address and phone number. Attendance is free of charge and open to all upon registration.

UNIVERSITY OF OSLO

UNIVERSITY OF TARTU
INSTITUTE OF PHILOSOPHY AND SEMIOTICS
DEPARTMENT OF SEMIOTICS

